FIVE NAMED TO STATE TAX COMMISSION TO WORK OUT A PLAN

Two More to Be Named
By Governor and the
Seven Are To Make a
Report To Legislature.

SEEK A STANDARD

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—Appointment of five of the seven members of the Pennsylvania Tax Commission were announced today. The commission will investigate present methods of taxation and recommend changes which they believe necessary to the next legislature. It is believed their work will mean ultimately an entire revision of all state taxation methods.

The five members are former Judge James H. Reid, Pittsburgh; John T. Connelly, Philadelphia; General John T. Wood, Wayne; Marion K. McKay, Pittsburgh; and Archibald F. Jones, The former two were appointed, under power conferred by the legislative resolution, by Senator John G. Homsher, president pro tempore of the Senate, and the latter three by C. J. Goodenough, speaker of the House. The Governor will appoint the two additional members but was not ready to announce their names today.

The resolution which authorized creation of the commission directed that it should investigate "system and methods of taxation particularly with regard to the best methods of equitably and efficiently reaching all property which should be subjected to taxation" and avoiding duplication of taxation on the same property. The resolution also authorizes the commission to prepare the needed legislation to carry such methods into effect. The members serve without pay but will receive $15,000 for necessary expenses.

PHILIPPINO LEADERS ACCUSE GEN. WOOD OF "BACKING DOWN"

Washington, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Governor General Leonard Wood of the Philippine Islands was accused today by members of the Philippine Independence Mission with backing down from his former autocratic administration in an effort to avoid a Congressional investigation.

Members of the mission, headed by Manuel Roxas, speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives, declared that General Wood, fearing the impending investigation is reversing all of his previous policies insofar as dealing with the native government are concerned.

Two specific instances were cited. On Monday, General Wood for the first time consulted with members of a cabinet on measures he desired to recommend to the Philippine legislature. Thursday, he gave the secretaries of departments permission to read their proposed bills to the legislature direct instead of through the executive as has been the practice since the advent of the Wood Administration.

Another Jump in Price Of Gasoline Announced By Atlantic Refining Co.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 19. (INS.)—An increase of two cents a gallon in the price of gasoline, effective today throughout Pennsylvania, was announced this morning by officials of the Atlantic Refining Co. here. This advance, the second within 10 days, brings the price of motor gasoline to 20 cents, exclusive of the State tax. The upward tendency of the oil market is considered responsible for the increase.

James Hudson, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia for the past six weeks, is now slowly regaining health.

202,268 HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS IN THE STATE

Harrisburg, Jan. 19.—There were 202,268 pupils in Pennsylvania high schools during the last school year, which ended in June 1923, according to figures compiled by Dr. J. George Becht, superintendent of Public Instruction, and made public today.

MAIL BALLOT LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL SAYS LANCASTER COUNTY JUDGE

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—The amendment to the Pennsylvania election laws permitting a mail ballot was today declared unconstitutional in an opinion handed down by Judge A. B. Hassler on the select council issue in the fifth ward. Ira P. Bare, Republican, declared elected by the election board by reason of 20 mail ballots, must give up his seat to Leonard L. Lewis, the coalition candidate. This decision will effect a number of city offices where mail ballots decided the contest.

Greb Easily Disposes Of Contender Wilson; Has Cinch On the Belt

B. DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor
New York, Jan. 19.—Harry Greb, the champion, beat Johnny Wilson, the challenger for the middleweight championship of the world at Madison Square Garden last night, and if necessary will continue to do so until he grows a crutch under his arm pit. Greb proved himself Wilson's master now, forever and henceforth.

If Wilson is the most worthy challenger in the middleweight division, Greb will go to his grave, hand-in-hand with the title.

However, this is altogether unlikely. As a matter of fact, the Pittsburgh entry maybe "taken" by the first plausible contender that hovers in sight. He is known to have lost some of his dazzling speed in spite of a veritable cake walk to the decision. The writer conceded Wilson only two rounds of the 15 rounds, namely the third and fifth. The former champion flashed a punishing body attack in these rounds and although made a reasonably strong show through the first half of the fight. After that he was outscored four punches to one, and finished in a saunter. It was merely a case of a one-punch fighter and slow thinker trying to do business with a man who used all punches indiscriminately and varied his attacks with a change of pace.

POMONA GRANGE INSTITUTE

The Pomona Grange initiated ten candidates for the "Fifth" degree Thursday at the Pomona hall in Curwensville. A large number of people attended both afternoon and evening meetings. Both dinner and supper were served at the hall to the Grangers. The entertainment, which consisted of music, recitations and educational talks was exceedingly good.

ST. LOUIS BABE WINS RACE WITH DEATH; IS NOW UNDER CARE OF EXPERTS, WHO STUDY THE CASE

Philadelphia, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Little Cletus Moore, eight months old of St. Louis, Mo., won his race with death but today he reposed in his crib in the University Hospital a pitiable object that will tax the skill of four surgeons who have volunteered to do all in their power to save his waning life, without pay.

The baby, snuggled in the tender embrace of his nurse, Mrs. Lela A. Parrish, of St. Louis, came into the city at 4:30 o'clock this morning ahead of death in the 1,000 mile race from the mid-west city. He was still gasping for breath, still hanging on to life when Mrs. Parrish registered him at the University hospital at 5 o'clock and helpfully turned him over to hospital attendants.

STOVE CAUSED FIRE

Ridgway, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—A mother and her three children, the oldest aged 5, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home at Sennamahoning near here today. The father is dying physicians say, in a local hospital from burns suffered when he attempted to rescue other members of his family.

The victims are: Mrs. Jacob Smith, 25, daughter, aged 5, and two sons, aged 4 and 1.

An overturned stove is believed to have caused the blaze. The family was sleeping on the second floor of their two story frame house when the fire broke out. It had gained great headway before the flames attracted neighbors who attempted to make their way through a flameswept hall to the upper floor.

Their shouts aroused the father and he vainly attempted to rouse his wife and children.

It is thought the victims were rendered unconscious by smoke.

The house is situated in an isolated section without fire protection.

TEXAS GOVERNOR REVERSES ACTION ON PASSAGE OF MEXICAN TROOPS

Washington, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Mexican Federal Troops will be permitted to pass through the state of Texas at El Paso, it was announced at the State Department today.

The decision of acting Gov. Davidson of Texas not to permit the movement has been reversed, and plans have been worked out so that the Mexican troops will only pass over a very small part of Texas territory in their trip through the United States.

Washington, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Behind a wall of official silence, the United States Government was moving in various ways today to aid the Obregon government in suppressing the De la Huerta revolution, and to insure the protection of American lives, property and commerce in the Mexican trouble zone.

While confirmation of reported naval movements was still withheld, it was understood that orders are pending—if they have not actually been sent out—for the detachment of a small naval force from the combined fleets in Panamanian waters and its despatch to the region of Tampico, where De la Huerta's two gunboats have been molesting foreign shipping and attempting to blockade the port.

Britain's Ratification Of The U. S. Rum Treaty Is Expected In Two Weeks

By SEARS TAYLOR
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Washington, Jan. 19.—British ratification of the proposed Anglo-American rum treaty probably will be forwarded to this Government within the next two weeks, International News Service learned today.

The great length of time that has elapsed since this Government sent a revised draft of the treaty to Great Britain was occasioned, according to officials here by the fact that the matter was submitted all of the British dominions by Foreign Secretary Curzon and they have been dilatory in replying.

It is understood, however, that the draft of the treaty, as revised by Secretary Hughes, has been approved by the majority of the British Dominions.

The fact that the Baldwin Ministry is to retire shortly in favor of the Labor Government has undoubtedly helped to speed the matter up as far as possible in the opinion of officials here, in order that credit for executing the treaty might go to that administration.

Supreme Effort Is Being Made To Avert Railway Strike In The British Isles

London, Jan. 19. A supreme effort was made today to avert the general strike of railway locomotive engineers called for tomorrow.

Railway Union Leaders conferred with Representatives of the companies, seeking a preliminary basis upon which further negotiations could be based.

It is understood the engineers offered to postpone the strike if the managers (representatives of the railway companies) would defer operation of the wage award of the National Wages Tribunal. The union accepted the award as well as the companies but subsequently repudiated it.

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—Prof. E. H. Lancaster, head of the business course at Franklin and Marshall College, is the father of twin boys, and he has named the one Franklin and the other Marshall.

CLARION BRIDGE IS TO BE THROWN OPEN TO TRAFFIC SUNDAY

The Clarion Democrat makes the positive announcement that the Clarion bridge, which has been out of commission for the greater part of the summer and this winter, will be thrown open for use of traffic tomorrow. This is news that will be heard with great interest on the part of automobilists of this entire section of the country, as travel to the north over the Lakes-to-the-Sea Highway has been cut down over fifty per cent during the past several months. It is only recently that the detour was put in shape for travel. In speaking of the opening of the bridge for traffic tomorrow, the Democrat has the following to say:

"Word from the Clarion River Dam Construction Company is that Sunday, Jan. 20 will find the Lakes-to-the-Sea Highway bridge open for travel. This is good news to travelers along the Lakes-to-the-Sea, and also to us in this section. The steel work on the bridge was completed early this week, and the grading and filling of the approaches will be completed by Saturday, if the weather is at all favorable. The opening of the bridge on schedule time is another compliment to the Clarion River Power Company.

They have fulfilled every promise they have ever made to the people of Clarion, and always better than the people expected."

POMONAS HAVE A VERY INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY

The Pomona Grange, of Clearfield county, held its regular meeting Thursday at Curwensville, with a fine attendance. There was business of importance to be transacted and the forenoon session was devoted to this business, and in taking up the subjects connected with agriculture. There were several subjects of importance which were thoroughly discussed. Following the business, Miss Reed presented the poem, "The House by the Side of the Road." Miss Reed is a speaker of ability and the poem was beautifully rendered. There was music furnished by the Grange, which finished the morning session.

In the afternoon the installation of officers who have been elected for the year of 1924 took place. In the evening the fourth degree was conferred on a number of members. Following the conferring of the degree a fine program was presented.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Grange.

Resolution No. 1
The greatest evil that our state and Nation has had in the past is the manufacture, use and sale of intoxicating liquors. It corrupted the morals and politics of the citizenry of the state and nation and now that the Eighteenth Amendment has been adopted and adequate laws have been passed for the punishment of those who violate these laws should be enforced. It would appear that any person who makes, sells, deals in, gives, or in any manner assists in distributing intoxicating liquors, must know that it is a violation of the Constitution and the laws enacted to enforce that clause of the Constitution.

In our judgment the person who deliberately violates a law is not entitled to consideration. He is not a good citizen and the penal laws are (Continued On Page Two.)

OIL CITY SURELY HAS LOTS OF NERVE; DISPUTES THE UNERRING JUDGMENT OF THE PUNXSUTAWNEY GROUNDHOG

Oil City, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—of 50 wild geese flying north; swans Treason against the Punxsutawney, the Groundhog, sacred prognosticator of winter's end, has been voiced here in signs of an early spring and effective hints that question his infallible right to presage the advent of spring, which the world in former years have awaited the groundhog's verdict on. Oldest residents here in the last few days have reported seeing a flock

One Basket Stood 'Twixt C. H. S. and Much Needed Victory at Punxsutawney

After playing listlessly the opening period, Clearfield High floormen tagged a strong come-back but could not securely hold the winning cards and suffered defeat at the hands of Punxsutawney High cagers 29-27 last night at Punxsutawney. The chief reason for losing was one, and one only—the lack of get-to-itiveness, or the lack of starting power. After starting the Red and Black tossers completely outplayed the enemy but their early lead enabled them to knock off the locals' crown.

As a whole Punxsutawney did not show world benter, yet their forwards appeared fair. Friedman at forward was the Cherry and White's big trump with 11 points, which helped him maintain the individual scoring honors of the league. Capt. Kurtz, although making four field scores showed no brilliant form. The rest of the team supported this unit and "fed" them with winning form.

Clearfield, although showing some good form, showed some raw spots. Nick Brown, the locals' tall center, found his height a real asset, among the "boys" and constantly rolled.

MAHAFFEY "FIVE" TAKING ON SOME BIG JOBS THIS YEAR

Hundred of years ago wild animals lived in caves, but today they have made a stronghold of Mahaffey located in the south-west corner of Clearfield county. The Bears and their Cubs are two basketball teams which are now going through their third consecutive season without a single defeat. This is a most remarkable record and it is no wonder that the pioneers and hunters in the athletic world, approach this Mahaffey cave with a great deal of caution. This winter finds the two championship teams at it again and tackling some of the best quintets in western Pennsylvania. They play aggregation all the way from Williamsport to Pittsburgh. They play a real type of ball. D. W. Walker, formerly of Clearfield, and an old National high jump champion, is their coach and has been able to develop fine team work, and a fighting crew. Walker seems to know how to develop a player for a certain position and to weave them into a full combination and develop close harmony in the team. Their coming games are with such towns as Tyrone, Bellwood, Altoona, Punxsutawney, Pittsburgh, DuBois, etc., and in between times these Bears and Cubs fight it out among themselves, and it is then that the natives see fur and claws flying in all directions.

The Basketball club also conducts some attractive entertainments and are closing this month's programme on January 30th with a double dance, a game and a box supper all in one. The question has been asked: "Who is going to stop these 'Chest Creekers'?"

On account of the basket ball preliminary at the High School gym there will be no moving pictures shown at the High School auditorium tonight.

Mrs. Oscar Seuffer of the College of Music and her pupil, Bessie Baker of Woodland, went to State College this morning where they will attend the concert of the great cellist, Pablo Calax.

WILD WEST STUNT RESULTS IN VERY SERIOUS CHARGES

Jack Mitten of Hyde
City Discharged a Gun
In Face of Third Ward
Man Who Ducked Aim.

HAD WORD BATTLE

The habits of Johnston's billiard room, in the basement of the Johnston Block corner Market and Third street, were treated to a little wild west stunt yesterday afternoon, which heated the room quicker than a man could say: Andy Volstead.

About 4 o'clock Jack Mitten, of Hyde City, Len Harey and George Davis, of the Third Ward, dropped into the room where a number of young men were playing billiards with a gallery of spectators in the chairs around the room. It was seen that Mitten was very much under the influence of liquor and shortly after entering the room engaged in a wordy altercation with the men who accompanied him. Suddenly drawing a revolver from his pocket, Mitten thrust it in Davis' face and pulled the trigger.

Davis managed to duck out of range as the gun was fired, the bullet passing close to his body, and embedding itself in the wall. Davis then seized the gun and managed to wrench it from Mitten's hand before he could fire again.

Mitten, who was so drunk he didn't appear to know what he was doing, slumped down onto a bench in the new empty billiard room and was lying there when Officer Woolridge appeared on the scene, in answer to Proprietor Johnston's telephone call, and placed him under arrest. When searched a handful of cartridges was found on Mitten but the gun had been taken away by Davis. He was placed in the lockup and will be given a hearing later.

In justice to Proprietor Johnston it is necessary to add that Mitten was neither a patron nor a frequenter of the billiard room. He had been on a spree about town for a day or two and with his companions just happened into the place a few minutes before the shooting took place.

The bullet which missed Davis passed over the candy case in the front of the room and struck the wall directly behind the spot where Proprietor Johnston or his assistant Clifford Jackson are usually located and one or the other escaped serious injury only because of the fact that Mr. Johnston was out getting shaved at the time of the shooting while Mr. Jackson was attending the tables in play.

THREE YOUNG MEN ENTER AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS HERE

A new firm in Clearfield's business life is the R. H. & D. Motor Company who have secured the selling agency in this section for the Moon automobile. The firm is composed of P. M. Rhinehart, at present connected with the Dunton Hardware Company, who will have charge of the accounting; William Hagerly, who will be in charge of the salesroom of the new firm in the recently completed Bratton Garage on Turnpike avenue, and Mr. J. R. Dickey, of Belle Landing, who will act as sales manager.

This new firm has one of the new Moon Sport Sedans on display and expect to have a touring car for demonstration and display within a short time.

NOT ENOUGH

Harrisburg, Jan. 19.—The Department of Highways received the licenses of 529 automobile drivers and placed on the black-list the names of 482 unlicensed drivers who will not be given a license for one year, compilation of 1923 totals here today showed.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Joe Simco, a Curwensville miner, not only swings a nasty pick, but wields a wicked pencil sometimes when emotions akin to righteous indignation stir his breast. Joe recently took his stab of pencil in hand for the purpose of putting on paper his views on nation-wide prohibition as it is now alleged to exist. Joe entered his effort in the $2,000 prize contest carried on by Collier's Weekly. Joe not only got favorable mention but his letter won one of the $25 prizes. Here is Joe's version of how she prohibits up around Curwensville:

What I Think of Prohibition.
Prohibition such as we have is a hell of a thing! Those who don't need booze can buy the real stuff, while us miners, who work hard and need some pleasure, are posterized by bootleggers selling rot-gut. A white-mule jag means a lay-off. We're lucky if we're not killed or blinded.

Most hotels and saloons still sell wild booze, and as the miners run slack, many miners or their wives are running stills and making home brew. Many make the stuff and all are learning to disregard that law and others which will get worse as they grow older.

We miners are a good-hearted bunch, so, besides blind tigers and saloons, we have clubs with sideboards. Clubs hire men who deal booze and make beer. Their big time is Saturday night and Sunday, especially Sunday, the day the saloons kept closed. Drinks cost more than ever, and the bootleggers pay no tax. If prohibition isn't better enforced, Congress had better pass a law allowing light wine and beer. I mix with the younger bunch, and it is shocking to see their wildness and the poisoned booze they drink—boys and girls both—and they laugh at evading the law. If they keep on, they will not live to a ripe old age; at least their children will be weaklings, and eventually prohibition may be a success, for there will be no one left to drink booze.

Drinking among college and university students has greatly increased since constitutional prohibition, Dr. Samuel Plantz, president of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., told the Anti-Saloon League Tuesday at its thirtieth annual convention in Washington, D. C. He said a large percentage of American college students favor "some modification in the prohibition law."

What is said to be the last virgin tract of timber in the state, comprising 12,000 acres in Sullivan county, largely hemlock, is being cut. The tract is not far from Williamsport.

Williamsport at one time was the leading lumbering center of the world. In 1886, the peak year, it had 28 saw mills, 13 planing mills, and two kindling wood factories. From 1883 to 1888 about 2,000,000 logs were received annually at the Susquehanna boom. From 1860 the business began to decline and in 1900 the end was in sight. The operation in Sullivan county is the last.

The largest stock of pine lumber on hand at the saw mill totaled 220,961, 922 feet in 1874. In 1884 there were 65,760,922 feet of hemlock lumber stacked in the yards of the mills. It was not unusual for the mills to send from 225,000,000 to 250,000,000 feet of lumber to market in the course of a year when the industry was in full swing.

According to statistics furnished the Indiana Sunday School Council at Indianapolis on Monday last, most of the major sins committed in this country are the work of boys between the ages of 17 and 23 years. Figures show that the average boy per day of 1923 the average age of children dropped from 12 to eight years, as given by the H. K. Kony, president of the Indiana Sunday School Council, which included Indianapolis. He said that the crime rate of 1923 was 100 percent, while the lack of discipline on youth.

pointers out of enemy reach. Pete Barnie showed the class of the locals, combining real fight with four field goals and two fumbles for a 10-point lead. K. Barnie and Mitchell responded with some real cagework in the last two periods, while Bob Wilson seemed unable to get started. Tony Rafferty got a few minutes play to his credit.

Punxsy started the game with a fighting spirit and completely rushed the locals off their feet, ending the first period 10-7 because the score does not tell the number of "peep" shots the Punxsy forwards missed. The enemy kept up their constant fight but could not seem to jump their score while all Clearfield efforts counted points, the score being 17-15 as the halfway mark was reached. Coach Reed's talk between periods hit the spot and the locals staged a complete comeback which, thru the supreme efforts of Pete Barnie and Nick Brown, put the local terrors ahead 20-21 as the third period ended.

Punxsy answered with an ever-increasing speed and through the shooting of Friedman decided to win. Then a wicked shot from Capt. Kurtz put his team in the lead. Pete Barnie came through and put the locals even then Murray, Punxsy center, did it with a perfect shot as the final whistle sounded.

Altho defeated, the locals have a chance to win the pennant and for showing some real form which was started from the opening of the game while the recipe also calls for a large quantity of fighting being added, to which all the squad have pledged their best.

Jersey Shore High appears here as the attraction this evening and according to all reports have a world beater, but Clearfield didn't lose to Punxsy for nothing.

passed for the purpose of suppressing this class of people.
In the past a great many persons have been prosecuted and when they have been convicted or entered pleas of guilty, light and trifling sentences have been passed, and in our judgment, this has only induced additional violation for the reason that the profits in the manufacture and sale of illicit liquor are so great that a fine and light punishment is no adequate punishment. Therefore be it

Roundsteak, as purchased at 25 cents a pound retail, represents 8.5 per cent waste (bone and sinew). The edible tissue contains 67.8 per cent water.

The consumer, therefore, pays for 16 ounces of edible roundsteak solids 84 cents, as against 50 cents for the same quantity of milk solids.

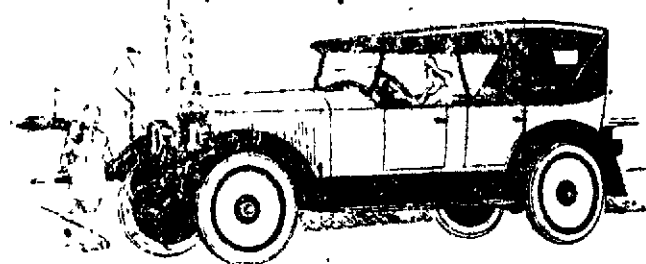

Roundsteak not only lacks the salts of lime, iron, and other indispensable mineral constituents of whole food, but it cannot be consumed by young infants at all.

Carnivorous animals find the missing elements of a meat diet in the blood and bones of their victims. In stripping the bone and draining the blood man loses these elements.

Hence, in contrasting a one-sided food at 84 cents a pound with a whole and complete food at 50 cents a pound, we are enabled to appreciate the true value of milk.

Rickenbacker

A CAR WORTHY OF ITS NAME

Remember— Rickenbacker Told You So!

Just so you will fix the fact in your own mind for future reference and guidance;

—so you will, in the future, value Rickenbacker's advice at its true worth, and heed our timely warnings;

—so you will, in short, come to realize that Rickenbacker engineering is as sound as it is progressive;

—and finally, so you will know that in selecting a Rickenbacker you are always getting a car that is at least a year in advance of the rank and file of cars in engineering improvements, in body styles, finish and appointments;

—to the end that your annual depreciation will be the minimum, and resale value of your car the maximum;

We are constrained to remind you that just six months ago, (July 1st, to be exact), Rickenbacker proclaimed to the world that, within a year, 4-Wheel Brakes would be universal.

Several makers openly took issue with us.

Not only was every effort made to discredit our assertion and discount the superiority of 4-Wheel Brakes, but to prove that Rickenbacker was wrong both in pioneering this great improvement, and in taking such a definite stand on the subject.

We were certain, however, that future events would prove the accuracy of our assertion.

We knew we were right—and feared not to go ahead.

Only six months later—January 5th to 12th—the New York Automobile Show was a sensational vindication of the Rickenbacker policy.

It is almost every exhibit in that great show was an endorsement of Rickenbacker judgment—frank recognition of Rickenbacker leadership.

The evidence was so conclusive as to leave no room for doubt—4-Wheel Brakes have conquered apathetic prejudice and active opposition.

Not only have they proven necessary, but actually indispensable for safe driving in present-day traffic conditions.

Informed buyers now insist—and will continue more than ever to insist—that all four wheels be equipped with first-class brakes.

Eventually this insistence will be for fully enclosed, internal expanding brakes, too.

33—over 50%—makers exhibited cars in which 4-Wheel Brakes were an outstanding feature.

This was in response to insistent demands of buyers as expressed through salesmen and dealers.

The buyer, having once experienced the greater safety and efficiency of this fundamental improvement, said "I want that!"

And when an American buyer demands, the maker has no option—he must comply.

Today, the buyer is repeating those words so often and so emphatically, every maker must accede—or pay the penalty.

"Has this car 4-Wheel Brakes?"

That was the first question you heard when you stopped at any exhibit in the Auto Show.

And the next question generally was, "Are they internal expanding brakes mechanically operated?"

But, several other innovations and improvements that were emphasized by several makers as new in this show—but which you saw in the first Rickenbacker Six—also indicated the impress of this product on the entire industry.

12 Cars now boast "vibrationless motors." And it is interesting to note the several expedients applied in efforts to emulate the results of Rickenbacker's "Tandem Fly Wheel."

9 Cars emphasized "deeper frames"—though none as yet, approaches the eight (8") inch dimensions of the Rickenbacker "Double Depth" frame.

6 Cars showed springs set nearer the ends of the rear axle—nearer the point of contact between tire and road. This is one of the features of Rickenbacker "Cradle" spring suspension.

There are several other points, however, that are still to be found only in this car.

6 Cars have "Air Cleaners" of one kind or another—in emulation of Rickenbacker's provision for "protecting the lungs of the motor."

Fully 75% of all makers now feature steel disc wheels—first announced as standard on the first Rickenbacker Six.

5 Cars feature ball bearings in steering spindles—all of these are much higher priced cars than Rickenbacker, by the way.

5 Cars show the commutator located above motor, away from dirt, water and oil. This also you first saw in the Rickenbacker Six.

And yet—while "imitation is the sincerest form of flattery," and we heartily acknowledge the implied compliment—

We cannot but derive still more satisfaction from the fact that, while each of several have emulated Rickenbacker in one or two features, none so far, has combined all those superiorities in one product as you find them in the Rickenbacker Six.

Of course, everyone looked to this exhibit to sound the keynote for the new year. Nor was any disappointed.

Rickenbacker ran true to form by setting a new standard of values with several refinements and the unprecedented equipment at the new price.

When you had visited this exhibit, the term "fully equipped" had acquired a new meaning.

For Rickenbacker showed, for the first time in the world's history, standard models at standard prices, and completely equipped as to leave the new owner "Nothing Else to Buy."

Rickenbacker models this year are equipped with all those safety devices and conveniences which the seasoned motorist considers essential, and for which, heretofore, you have paid extra.

Not only the customary speedometer, ammeter, voltmeter, pilot light, oil gauge and switch-lock on the instrument board;—

But also transmission lock, Folberth wind-shield cleaner, combination vanity and smoking case, motor meter, motor meter wings, motor meter lock, shock absorbers and bumpers, both front and rear.

The open models—Sport Phaeton and Sport Roadster—also have beveled plate-glass wind wings.

All models are equipped with drum tire-covers with lettered warning "4-Wheel Brakes," which is for the benefit of the man behind, and which never fails to give the Rickenbacker man right of way. This is Rickenbacker's interpretation of the term "fully equipped."

Here is established not only a new standard of values, but a new code of business ethics.

For the first time, you saw an automobile in which the customer's needs and desires were considered paramount.

This is another Rickenbacker departure from former rules that will revolutionize sales practice.

"Nothing Else to Buy" is today the exclusive slogan of the Rickenbacker salesman—even as "4-Wheel Brakes" was his clarion cry six months ago.

Buyers will no longer accept as "fully equipped" a car that lacks any essential for ideal driving under any conditions of weather or traffic congestion.

Having seen the new Rickenbacker models; having yourself experienced the wonderful performance of the 4-Wheel Brakes, the luxury of a vibrationless motor, and the thrill of handling this car;—

Having seen what constitutes "complete equipment" according to the new Rickenbacker standard;—

And when you consider that all this is included in the new "delivered" price, you will be at a loss to understand how it is possible to produce so much for so little money.

We hope you will see all the others before you see the Rickenbacker—for only by direct comparison can you appreciate the amazing difference in quality, performance and value.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL Sunday School 'Lesson'

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D.,
Dean of the Evening School, Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago)
(1924 Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR JANUARY 20

MOSES CALLED TO DELIVER ISRAEL

LEVIN TRIST—Exod. 3:1-12. Moses, when he was about 40 years of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season.—Heb. 11:24, 25.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—Moses and the Deliverance From Egyptian Bondage.

After Joseph was dead, there was a change of dynasty (Exod. 1:8). The new king, noting the rapid increase of the Israelites, counseled the exercise of prudence lest when war broke out they join the enemy and fight against the Egyptians. One of the methods to curtail this increase was to enslave the people. Failing in that, an edict was issued that every male child should be drowned. While the oppression of God's people was reaching up, God was providing a deliverer. Moses, that deliverer, was first trained at his mother's knee, then at Pharaoh's court and finally under God's immediate hand in the desert.

1. The Lord Spoke to Moses From the Burning Bush (Exod. 3:1-6).

It was while keeping the flock of his father-in-law in the desert that the Lord appeared to Moses in the vision of the burning bush. This bush, enveloped in flames, yet unconsumed, symbolized the people of God, who dwelt in the very fire of God, and the dwelling in the midst of an elect people. Moses stepped aside to behold this strange sight and was taught the essential lesson of the proper approach to God. The Lord did not leave him long in suspense. He told him he was the God of his fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. As soon as he knew it was God speaking to him, he hid his face.

2. Moses Commissioned as the Deliverer of His People (Exod. 3:7-10).

God's Active Interest in His People (v. 7). In the preamble of this commission God said to Moses, (1) "I have seen the affliction of my people," (2) "I have heard their cry," (3) "I know their sorrow." God's Omnipotent Power (v. 8, 9). (1) To deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, (2) To bring them up out of the land, (3) To bring them into a "good land and a large river."

3. God's Commission to Moses (v. 10). "Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh that thou mayest bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt." This call seems to have been a great surprise to Moses. At any rate, he realized his unfitness to undertake such a task.

4. Moses' Objections Patiently Heeded and Removed (Exod. 3:11; 4:10).

1. Personal Unfitness (v. 11). He realized his insufficiency for this task. Moses did not refuse to go, but pleaded his difficulty before the Lord. God answered this difficulty by assuring him that He would be with him. The token of His presence would be His worship with the people of Israel on this mountain.

2. The Difficulty of the People to Understand Moses' Relationship to God (v. 13, 14). Moses knew how unwilling they were to acknowledge him as their deliverer 40 years before. Since God reveals Himself under a new name as He assumes a new relationship to His people, relationship would be and His corresponding name. The Lord promptly met this difficulty revealing to him a name different in many respects from all others previously given. This new name is "I Am." This name is from the Hebrew word, "to be." It indicates (1) God's self-existence—i.e. One whose very nature it is to be the cause of all being, (2) His self-sufficiency. He said, "I Am That I Am." Since God is the unique One, He could not go outside of Himself to explain Himself, (3) His unchangeableness. What He always was and is, He evermore shall be.

3. Unbelief on the Part of the People (Exod. 4:1). This difficulty the Lord met by supplying him with credentials which could not be gainsaid. He was given the power to perform supernatural wonders (Exod. 4:2).

4. Lack of Eloquence (Exod. 4:10). This difficulty the Lord met by providing an assistant in the person of his brother Aaron. Moses was to be in the place of God to Pharaoh and Aaron was to be his prophet (Exod. 7:1, 2).

5. Looking Forward.

The friendship of Jesus is one that lasts.—The Gospel Herald.

Perfect Peace.

The peace which the Savior gives His own is peace of heart and mind amid daily duties. It is that "central peace" which may subside in the heart of restless agitation.—Boyd.

A Good Equipment.

Have a heart that never hardens, a temper that never tires, and a touch that never hurts.—Charles Dickens.

Be Courageous.

Shun not the struggle. Face it.—The Menimite.

gins bout was arranged here for January 31.

FORMER CO. COMMISSIONER COLE ILL

Word was received yesterday afternoon by Mrs. H. J. Flegat that her brother, Charles H. Cole, former county commissioner of Clearfield county and a brother of the late A. L.
Cole, Esq., had been taken in an ambulance to the Olean hospital from his home in Shingle House suffering an acute and severe affliction of the bowels. His son, Dr. Harold Cole, a prominent physician of Cleveland, with a surgeon of that city, are expected to reach the hospital last evening and an operation doubtless was performed.

SOUNDS LIKE A DREAM

E. D. Richter, of Meyersdale, Pa., who has been stopping at the Leonard House in Clearfield the past few days while working an advertising scheme among our business men, received news today of a real "windfall" of fortune that befell him four years ago, news of which has just caught up with him.

Richter, who is one-sixteenth Indian on the maternal side of his ancestry, was reared in the far west, but becoming a victim of the wanderlust left his home in Fargo, North Dakota, five or six years ago. He came east and finally located at Meyersdale. He married there and on New Year's Day his first child, a son, was born. Before starting away from home on the trip which brought him to Clearfield, Richter telegraphed his father, who runs a newspaper at Fargo, the birth of his son.

The telegram was the first word
Richter's family had had from him for more than five years. During that period of time, Richter says, some of his mother's relatives had died and left him an interest in some of the Indian-owned oil fields in Oklahoma upon which oil had already been discovered and royalties amounting to more than $200,000 had been paid up for him in an Oklahoma bank while a constant four-year search for him had been carried on throughout the country by his relatives.

He was immediately bombarded by telegrams and letters when his whereabouts became known and expects to leave Clearfield the first of the week on completion of his business here, and after closing up his affairs at Meyersdale proceed to Oklahoma and possess himself of the fortune there awaiting his coming.

Interesting if true, isn't it?

IN most homes there is a small cabinet where

Little Dorsey Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Martin, is convalescing after an attack of pneumonia.

O. S. Jones, one of the Progress friends and readers, would like to know how many people remember the winter of 1876. 57 years ago last Friday the funeral of Mrs. Cynthia Hartshorn was held on the 14th of January, and the procession in conveying the body to the Friends cemetery was compelled to drive through field, over drifts and fences in order to reach the burial ground.

The many friends of Mr. Francis Thompson of Clearfield may be interested in knowing that he expects to skate in the Strand Theatre, Curwensville, January 23d. Here is the chance for those who have never had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Thompson skate. He is in fine condition for skating this evening.

Mr. Thompson of the Strand Theatre will skate on the night of January 23. Also the picture "The Lone Road" will be shown. Benefit Pantomime. Admission 25c. 10:15

WOODLAND

Mrs. Alice Nail, a former well known resident of our town but now lives in DuBois, visited relatives here this week.

A carpet sewing party was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Peters, of Mineral Springs on Wednesday. There were a number of ladies present and they had a very pleasant time and enjoyed the delicious dinner served by Mrs. Peters.

G. W. Muir was a business visitor at Mounment on Thursday.

Mrs. H. B. Varner, who was on the sick list this week is able to be out again.

Mrs. Jno. Woolridge, Mrs. H. O. Barger, Mrs. D. W. Baird and Mrs. U. B. Walker were Clearfield visitors on Thursday.

Miss Cathryn Pearce has been confined to her home all week with an attack of pleurisy and neuralgia.

Measles, chicken pox and whooping cough are prevalent among the children of the town at the present time.

Mrs. Sol. Knee, who lives about one mile south of town is very ill of pleural pneumonia.

A fine baby boy arrived last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stephens of Mineral Springs.

Beale Baker, in company with her teacher Mrs. Oscar W. Schaefer of the College of Music, Clearfield, went to State College this morning where they will attend this evening a recital given by a famous violin cellist.

NURSE IS HELD ON MURDER CHARGE THREE YEARS OLD

Philadelphia, Jan. 17 (AP)—Still protesting innocence and declaring she is the victim of a "frame-up," Myrtle Atkinson, 31 years old, of Ironton, O., a nurse in a suburban home for convalescents here, was in the city hall jail today charged with being implicated in the murder of Thomas Gwynn, a Massillon, O. policeman, three years ago. Police here are awaiting word from Ohio authorities.

The nurse was arrested last yesterday at the bedside of a patient. "It's all a frame-up, a dirty frame-up," she cried hysterically after a detective had read the warrant.

"I wouldn't go back, so they trump up this charge to get me back and testify against my friends. I was a bad woman out there and got mixed up in this mess. Now they won't let me alone, even though I'm trying to live straight. I'll go back, but I'll never try to be good again."

The detectives quieted her and took her to City Hall where she told a story of illicit love with a former Akron policeman. This man, Claude Osterholt, is now awaiting trial for Gwynn's murder. She declared she is certain Osterholt did not commit the murder because at the time of the shooting he was in his apartment. Osterholt's arrest followed a deathbed confession of Alexander, Pauline, so called "King of the Underworld," that he had hired Osterholt to slay Gwynn.

The nurse is believed by police to be a drug addict. When searched by a matron before being locked up, a bottle of morphine was found tucked away in her stocking.

A hearing is scheduled for 10 o'clock this morning.

The employees of the Clearfield Laundry Co. gave a delightful party at Idora Park last evening. About twenty-five couples participated and a very enjoyable time was had by all. Budge, dancing and refreshment were indulged in during the evening.

"It's not that I mind losing; it's simply the principle of the thing."

JORDAN'S

Passenger Missing From Steamer When It Docked; Had Charge Of A Corpse

Norfolk, Jan. 19. (INS.)—When the old Dominion steamer Jefferson from New York docked here last night, H. P. Burnett, a passenger who gave his address as 140 East Thirty-third street, New York, was missing. A note to the Purser, two letters, a bunch of keys and a few coins were found in Burnett's disordered state.

Burnett was last seen by a negro porter at 7 o'clock this morning. Just before springing from New York last night, he was seen by the Purser and by the Purser's wife, who was with him when he was last seen. The law requires every corpse must be accompanied by a passenger and there is nothing unusual in the situation.

A note addressed to the Purser read:

"The undertaker will call for this corpse at Norfolk. I am instructed to give his baggage check to him but as I am unable to do this I will be obliged if you will.

(Signed) H. P. BURNETT.

Detective Nowiskey, assigned to the case, mailed the two letters found in Burnett's stateroom without opening them. One was addressed to Mrs. A. Burnett, 139 West 78th street and the other to Mrs. J. Burnett, 140 East 13 street, New York City.

Police believe it is a case of suicide although officials of the Old Dominion line said it would have been possible for Burnett to come ashore here unnoticed as he was not known to any on board.

Mrs. Dora Flegal and Mrs. Laura Stewart went to Bald Hill to spend the weekend at the home of Kyle Murray.

Mrs. Oswald Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Girardville, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my last two babies came. It keeps me in perfect health and I am on my feet getting meals and doing all my housework until an hour before the baby is born. FIVE NAMED TO STATE TAX COMMISSION TO WORK OUT A PLAN

Two More to Be Named
By Governor and the
Seven Are To Make a
Report To Legislature.

SEEK A STANDARD

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—Appointment of five of the seven members of the Pennsylvania Tax Commission were announced today. The commission will investigate present methods of taxation and recommend changes which they believe necessary to the next legislature. It is believed their work will mean ultimately an entire revision of all state taxation methods.

The five members are former Judge James H. Reid, Pittsburgh; John T. Connelly, Philadelphia; General John T. Wood, Wayne; Marion K. McKay, Pittsburgh; and Archibald F. Jones, The former two were appointed, under power conferred by the legislative resolution, by Senator John G. Homsher, president pro tempore of the Senate, and the latter three by C. J. Goodenough, speaker of the House. The Governor will appoint the two additional members but was not ready to announce their names today.

The resolution which authorized creation of the commission directed that it should investigate "system and methods of taxation particularly with regard to the best methods of equitably and efficiently reaching all property which should be subjected to taxation" and avoiding duplication of taxation on the same property. The resolution also authorizes the commission to prepare the needed legislation to carry such methods into effect. The members serve without pay but will receive $15,000 for necessary expenses.

PHILIPPINO LEADERS ACCUSE GEN. WOOD OF "BACKING DOWN"

Washington, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Governor General Leonard Wood of the Philippine Islands was accused today by members of the Philippine Independence Mission with backing down from his former autocratic administration in an effort to avoid a Congressional investigation.

Members of the Mission, headed by Manuel Roxas, Speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives, declared that General Wood, fearing the impending investigation is reversing all of his previous policies insofar as dealing with the native government are concerned.

Two specific instances were cited. On Monday, General Wood for the first time consulted with members of a cabinet on measures he desired to recommend to the Philippine legislature. Thursday, he gave the secretaries of departments permission to read their proposed bills to the legislature direct instead of through the executive as has been the practice since the advent of the Wood Administration.

Another Jump in Price Of Gasoline Announced By Atlantic Refining Co.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 19. (INS.)—An increase of two cents a gallon in the price of gasoline, effective today throughout Pennsylvania, was announced this morning by officials of the Atlantic Refining Co. here. This advance, the second within 10 days, brings the price of motor gasoline to 20 cents, exclusive of the State tax. The upward tendency of the oil market is considered responsible for the increase.

MAIL BALLOT LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL SAYS LANCASTER COUNTY JUDGE

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—The amendment to the Pennsylvania election laws permitting a mail ballot was today declared unconstitutional in an opinion handed down by Judge A. B. Hassler on the select council issue in the fifth ward. Ira P. Bare, Republican, declared elected by the election board by reason of 20 mail ballots, must give up his seat to Leonard L. Lewis, the coalition candidate. This decision will effect a number of city offices where mail ballots decided the contest.

Greb Easily Disposes Of Contender Wilson; Has Cinch On the Belt

B. DAVIS J. WALSH
I. N. S. Sports Editor
New York, Jan. 19.—Harry Greb, the champion, beat Johnny Wilson, the challenger for the middleweight championship of the world at Madison Square Garden last night, and if necessary will continue to do so until he grows a crutch under his arm pit. Greb proved himself Wilson's master now, forever and henceforth.

If Wilson is the most worthy challenger in the middleweight division, Greb will go to his grave, hand-in-hand with the title.

However, this is altogether unlikely. As a matter of fact, the Pittsburgh entry maybe "taken" by the first plausible contender that hovers in sight. He is known to have lost some of his dazzling speed in spite of a very table cake walk to the decision. The writer conceded Wilson only two rounds of the 15 rounds, namely the third and fifth. The former champion flashed a punishing body attack in these rounds and although he made a reasonably strong show through the first half of the fight. After that he was outscored four punches to one, and finished in a saunter. It was merely a case of a one-punch fighter and slow thinker trying to do business with a man who used all punches indiscriminately and varied his attacks with a change of pace.

POMONA GRANGE INSTITUTE

The Pomona Grange initiated ten candidates for the "Fifth" degree Thursday at the Pomona hall in Curwensville. A large number of people attended both afternoon and evening meetings. ST. LOUIS BABE WINS RACE WITH DEATH; IS NOW UNDER CARE OF EXPERTS, WHO STUDY THE CASE

Philadelphia, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Little Cletus Moore, eight months old of St. Louis, Mo., won his race with death but today he reposed in his crib in the University Hospital a pitiable object that will tax the skill of four surgeons who have volunteered to do all in their power to save his waning life, without pay.

The baby, snuggled in the tender embrace of his nurse, Mrs. Lela A. Parrish, of St. Louis, came into the city at 4:30 o'clock this morning ahead of death in the 1,000 mile race from the mid-west city. He was still gasping for breath, still hanging on to life when Mrs. Parrish registered him at the University hospital at 5 o'clock and hopefully turned him over to hospital attendants.

STOVE CAUSED FIRE

Ridgway, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—A mother and her three children, the oldest aged 5, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home at Sennamahoning near here today. The father is dying physicians say, in a local hospital from burns suffered when he attempted to rescue other members of his family.

The victims are: Mrs. Jacob Smith, 25, daughter, aged 5, and two sons, aged 4 and 1.

An overheated stove is believed to have caused the blaze. The family was sleeping on the second floor of their two story frame house when the fire broke out. It had gained great headway before the flames attracted neighbors who attempted to make their way through a flameswept hall to the upper floor.

Their shouts aroused the father and he vainly attempted to rouse his wife and children.

It is thought the victims were rendered unconscious by smoke. The house is situated in an isolated section without fire protection.

TEXAS GOVERNOR REVERSES ACTION ON PASSAGE OF MEXICAN TROOPS

Washington, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Mexican Federal Troops will be permitted to pass through the state of Texas at El Paso, it was announced at the State Department today.

The decision of acting Gov. Davidson of Texas not to permit the movement has been reversed, and plans have been worked out so that the Mexican troops will only pass over a very small part of Texas territory in their trip through the United States.

Washington, Jan. 19. (INS.)—Behind a wall of official silence, the United States Government was moving in various ways today to aid the Obregon government in suppressing the De la Huerta revolution, and to insure the protection of American lives, property and commerce in the Mexican trouble zone.

While confirmation of reported naval movements was still withheld, it was understood that orders are pending—if they have not actually been sent out—for the detachment of a small naval force from the combined fleets in Panamanian waters and its despatch to the region of Tampico, where De la Huerta's two gunboats have been molesting foreign shipping and attempting to blockade the port.

Britain's Ratification Of The U. S. Rum Treaty Is Expected In Two Weeks

By SEARS TAYLOR
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Washington, Jan. 19.—British ratification of the proposed Anglo-American rum treaty probably will be forwarded to this Government within the next two weeks, International News Service learned today.

The great length of time that has elapsed since this Government sent a revised draft of the treaty to Great Britain was occasioned, according to officials here by the fact that the matter was submitted all of the British dominions by Foreign Secretary Curzon and they have been dilatory in replying.

It is understood, however, that the draft of the treaty, as revised by Secretary Hughes, has been approved by the majority of the British Dominions.

The fact that the Baldwin Ministry is to retire shortly in favor of the Labor Government has undoubtedly helped to speed the matter up as far as possible in the opinion of officials here, in order that credit for executing the treaty might go to that administration.

Supreme Effort Is Being Made To Avert Railway Strike In the British Isles

London, Jan. 19. A supreme effort was made today to avert the general strike of railway locomotive engineers called for tomorrow.

Railway Union Leaders conferred with Representatives of the companies, seeking a preliminary basis upon which further negotiations could be based.

It is understood the engineers offered to postpone the strike if the managers (representatives of the railway companies) would defer operation of the wage award of the National Wages Tribunal. The union accepted the award as well as the companies but subsequently repudiated it.

CLARION BRIDGE IS TO BE THROWN OPEN TO TRAFFIC SUNDAY

The Clarion Democrat makes the positive announcement that the Clarion bridge, which has been out of commission for the greater part of the summer and this winter, will be thrown open for use of traffic tomorrow. This is news that will be heard with great interest on the part of motorists of this entire section of the country, as travel to the north over the Lakes-to-the-Sea Highway has been cut down over fifty per cent during the past several months. It is only recently that the detour was put in shape for travel. In speaking of the opening of the bridge for traffic tomorrow, the Democrat has the following to say:

"Word from the Clarion River Dam Construction Company is that Sunday, Jan. 20 will find the Lakes-to-the-Sea Highway bridge open for travel. This is good news to travelers along the Lakes-to-the-Sea, and also to us in this section. The steel work on the bridge was completed early this week, and the grading and filling of the approaches will be completed by Saturday, if the weather is at all favorable. The opening of the bridge on schedule time is another compliment to the Clarion River Power Company.

They have fulfilled every promise they have ever made to the people of Clarion, and always better than the people expected."

POMONAS HAVE A VERY INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY

The Pomona Grange, of Clearfield county, held its regular meeting Thursday at Curwensville, with a fine attendance. There was business of importance to be transacted and the forenoon session was devoted to this business, and in taking up the subjects connected with agriculture. There were several subjects of importance which were thoroughly discussed. Following the business, Miss Reed presented the poem, "The House by the Side of the Road," Miss Reed is a speaker of ability and the poem was beautifully rendered. There was music furnished by the Grange, which finished the morning session.

In the afternoon the installation of officers who have been elected for the year of 1924 took place. In the evening the fourth degree was conferred on a number of members. Following the conferring of the degree a fine program was presented.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Grange.

Resolution No. 1
The greatest evil that our state and Nation has had in the past is the manufacture, use and sale of intoxicating liquors. It corrupted the morals and politics of the citizenry of the state and nation and now that the Eighteenth Amendment has been adopted and adequate laws have been passed for the punishment of those who violate these laws should be enforced. It would appear that any person who makes, sells, deals in, gives, or in any manner assists in distributing intoxicating liquors, must know that it is a violation of the Constitution and the laws enacted to enforce that clause of the Constitution.

In our judgment the person who deliberately violates a law is not entitled to consideration. He is not a good citizen and the penal laws are (Continued On Page Two.)

OIL CITY SURELY HAS LOTS OF NERVE; DISPUTES THE UNERRING JUDGMENT OF THE PUNXSUTAWNEY GROUNDHOG

Oil City, Pa., Jan. 19. (INS.)—of 50 wild geese flying north; swans Treason against the Punxsutawney, the Groundhog, sacred prognosticator of winter's end, has been voiced here in signs of an early spring and effective hints that question his infallible right to presage the advent of spring, which the world in former years have awaited the groundhog's verdict on. Oldest residents here in the last few days have reported seeing a flock

One Basket Stood 'Twixt C. H. S. and Much Needed Victory at Punxsutawney

After playing listlessly the opening period, Clearfield High floormen tagged a strong come-back but could not securely hold the winning cards and suffered defeat at the hands of Punxsutawney High cagers 29-27 last night at Punxsutawney. The chief reason for losing was one, and one only—the lack of get-to-itiveness, or the lack of starting power. After starting the Red and Black tossers completely outplayed the enemy but their early lead enabled them to knock off the locals' crown.

As a whole Punxsutawney did not show world benter, yet their forwards appeared fair. Friedman at forward was the Cherry and White's big trump with 11 points, which helped him maintain the individual scoring honors of the league. Capt. Kurtz, although making four field goals, showed no brilliant form. The rest of the team supported this unit and "fed" them with winning form.

Clearfield, although showing some good form, showed some raw spots. Nick Brown, the locals' tall center, found his height a real asset, among the "boys" and constantly rolled.

MAHAFFEY "FIVE" TAKING ON SOME BIG JOBS THIS YEAR

Hundred of years ago wild animals lived in caves, but today they have made a stronghold of Mahaffey located in the south-west corner of Clearfield county. The Bears and their Cubs are two basketball teams which are now going through their third consecutive season without a single defeat. This is a most remarkable record and it is no wonder that the pioneers and hunters in the athletic world, approach this Mahaffey cave with a great deal of caution. This winter finds the two championship teams at it again and tackling some of the best quintets in western Pennsylvania. They play aggregation all the way from Williamsport to Pittsburgh. They play a real type of ball. D. W. Walker, formerly of Clearfield, and an old National high jump champion, is their coach and has been able to develop fine team work, and a fighting crew. Walker seems to know how to develop a player for a certain position and to weave them into a full combination and develop close harmony in the team. Their coming games are with such towns as Tyrone, Bellwood, Altoona, Punxsutawney, Pittsburgh, DuBois, etc., and in between times these Bears and Cubs fight it out among themselves, and it is then that the natives see fur and claws flying in all directions.

The Basketball club also conducts some attractive entertainments and are closing this month's programme on January 30th with a double dance, a game and a box supper all in one. The question has been asked: "Who is going to stop these 'Chest Creekers'?"

NO HIGH SCHOOL MOVIES TONIGHT

On account of the basketball preliminary at the High School gym there will be no moving pictures shown at the High School auditorium tonight.

Mrs. Oscar Seuffer of the College of Music and her pupil, Bessie Baker of Woodland, went to State College this morning where they will attend the concert of the great cellist, Pablo Calax.

WILD WEST STUNT RESULTS IN VERY SERIOUS CHARGES

Jack Mitten of Hyde
City Discharged a Gun
In Face of Third Ward
Man Who Ducked Aim.

HAD WORD BATTLE

The habits of Johnston's billiard room, in the basement of the Johnston Block corner Market and Third street, were treated to a little wild west stunt yesterday afternoon, which heated the room quicker than a man could say: Andy Volstead.

About 4 o'clock Jack Mitten, of Hyde City, Len Harey and George Davis, of the Third Ward, dropped into the room where a number of young men were playing billiards with a gallery of spectators in the chairs around the room. It was seen that Mitten was very much under the influence of liquor and shortly after entering the room engaged in a wordy altercation with the men who accompanied him. Suddenly drawing a revolver from his pocket, Mitten thrust it in Davis' face and pulled the trigger.

Davis managed to duck out of range as the gun was fired, the bullet passing close to his body, and embedding itself in the wall. Davis then seized the gun and managed to wrench it from Mitten's hand before he could fire again.

Mitten, who was so drunk he didn't appear to know what he was doing, slumped down onto a bench in the new empty billiard room and was lying there when Officer Woolridge appeared on the scene, in answer to Proprietor Johnston's telephone call, and placed him under arrest. When searched a handful of cartridges was found on Mitten but the gun had been taken away by Davis. He was placed in the lockup and will be given a hearing later.

In justice to Proprietor Johnston it is necessary to add that Mitten was neither a patron nor a frequenter of the billiard room. He had been on a spree about town for a day or two and with his companions just happened into the place a few minutes before the shooting took place.

The bullet which missed Davis passed over the candy case in the front of the room and struck the wall directly behind the spot where Proprietor Johnston or his assistant Clifford Jackson are usually located and one or the other escaped serious injury only because of the fact that Mr. Johnston was out getting shaved at the time of the shooting while Mr. Jackson was attending the tables in play.

THREE YOUNG MEN ENTER AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS HERE

A new firm in Clearfield's business life is the R. H. & D. Motor Company who have secured the selling agency in this section for the Moon automobile. The firm is composed of P. M. Rhinehart, at present connected with the Dunton Hardware Company, who will have charge of the accounting; William Hagey, who will be in charge of the salesroom of the new firm in the recently completed Bratton Garage on Turnpike avenue, and Mr. J. R. Dickey, of Belle Landing, who will act as sales manager.

This new firm has one of the new Moon Sport Sedans on display and expect to have a touring car for demonstration and display within a short time.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Joe Simco, a Curwensville miner, not only swings a nasty pick, but wields a wicked pencil sometimes when emotions akin to righteous indignation stir his breast. Joe recently took his stab of pencil in hand for the purpose of putting on paper his views on nation-wide prohibition as it is now alleged to exist. Joe entered his effort in the $2,000 prize contest carried on by Collier's Weekly. Joe not only got favorable mention but his letter won one of the $25 prizes. Here is Joe's version of how she prohibits up around Curwensville:

What I Think of Prohibition.
Prohibition such as we have is a hell of a thing! Those who don't need booze can buy the real stuff, while us miners, who work hard and need some pleasure, are posterized by bootleggers selling rot-gut. A white-mule jag means a lay-off. We're lucky if we're not killed or blinded.

Most hotels and saloons still sell wild booze, and as the miners run slack, many miners or their wives are running stills and making home brew. Many make the stuff and all are learning to disregard that law and others which will get worse as they grow older.

We miners are a good-hearted bunch, so, besides blind tigers and saloons, we have clubs with sideboards. Clubs hire men who deal booze and make beer. Their big time is Saturday night and Sunday, especially Sunday, the day the saloons kept closed. Drinks cost more than ever, and the bootleggers pay no tax. If prohibition isn't better enforced, Congress had better pass a law allowing light wines and beer. I mix with the younger bunch, and it is shocking to see their wildness and the poisoned booze they drink—boys and girls both—and they laugh at evading the law. If they keep on, they will not live to a ripe old age; at least their children will be weaklings, and eventually prohibition may be a success, for there will be no one left to drink booze.

Drinking among college and university students has greatly increased since constitutional prohibition, Dr. Samuel Plantz, president of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., told the Anti-Saloon League Tuesday at its thirtieth annual convention in Washington, D. C. He said a large percentage of American college students favor "some modification in the prohibition law."

What is said to be the last virgin tract of timber in the state, comprising 12,000 acres in Sullivan county, largely hemlock, is being cut. The tract is not far from Williamsport.

Williamsport at one time was the leading lumbering center of the world. In 1886, the peak year, it had 28 saw mills, 13 planing mills, and two kindling wood factories. From 1883 to 1888 about 2,000,000 logs were received annually at the Susquehanna boom. From 1860 the business began to decline and in 1900 the end was in sight. The operation in Sullivan county is the last.

The largest stock of pine lumber on hand at the saw mill totaled 220,961, 922 feet in 1874. In 1884 there were 65,760,922 feet of hemlock lumber stacked in the yards of the mills. It was not unusual for the mills to send from 225,000,000 to 250,000,000 feet of lumber to market in the course of a year when the industry was in full swing.

According to statistics furnished the Indiana Sunday School Council at Indianapolis on Monday last, most of the major sins committed in this country are the work of boys between the ages of 17 and 23 years. Figures show that in the year per day of 1917, 123 the average age of children who drop out of school is eight years, as given by the H. K. Kony, president of the Indiana Sunday School Council, which includes Indianapolis. He said that the crime of 1917, the lack of discipline, is still in a serious condition.

Michael Canavan, who had the misfortune to fall down stairs at the home of his son, T. H. Canavan, on Nichol's street, while somewhat improved, is still in a serious condition.

pointers out of enemy reach. Pete Barnie showed the class of the locals, combining real fight with four field goals and two fumbles for a 10-point lead. K. Barnie and Mitchell responded with some real cagework in the last two periods, while Bob Wilson seemed unable to get started.

Tony Rafferty got a few minutes play to his credit. Punxsy started the game with a fighting spirit and completely rushed the locals off their feet, ending the first period 10-7 because the score does not tell the number of "peep" shots the Punxsy forwards missed. The enemy kept up their constant fight but could not seem to jump their score while all Clearfield efforts counted points, the score being 17-17 as the halfway mark was reached. Coach Reed's talk between periods hit the spot and the locals staged a complete comeback which, thru the supreme efforts of Pete Barnie and Nick Brown, put the local tassets ahead 20-21 as the third period ended.

Punxsy answered with an ever-increasing speed and through the shooting of Friedman decided to win. Then a wicked shot from Capt. Kurtz put his team in the lead. Pete Barnie came through and put the locals even then Murray, Punxsy center, did it with a perfect shot as the final whistle sounded.

Altho defeated, the locals have a chance to win the pennant and for showing some real form which was stated from the opening of the game while the recipe also calls for a large quantity of fighting being added, to which all the squad have pledged their best.

Jersey Shore High appears here as the attraction this evening and according to all reports have a world beater, but Clearfield didn't lose to Punxsy for nothing.

League News.
Last night's league encounters wrecked leaders and set leaders. Brookville fell before the onslaught of "Jimmy" DuBert, and his DuBois team, 31-25, in a real thriller in which Whitey Swindell, Brookville's stellar forward, registered 20 of his team's 25 points. New Bethlehem remained idle and was forced into the cellar. Punxsy took Clearfield over in a fast 29-27 contest, putting Punxsy with DuBois tied for the lead, and leaving Brookville and Clearfield fighting for second place.

Sometimes good groceries cost a little more than the questionable kind. But in the long run it's real economy to buy them.

This isn't a store of bargain selling—"drives" in job lot eatables.

That's not the way to sell pure foods—pure foods are not sold in that way. Pure Food Products are the biggest value in the long run, though they cost a little more. We gladly pay more than the cost of ordinary brands to be able to give you more quality for your money.

passed for the purpose of suppressing this class of people.
In the past a great many persons have been prosecuted and when they have been convicted or entered pleas of guilty, light and trifling sentences have been passed, and in our judgment, this has only induced additional violation for the reason that the profits in the manufacture and sale of illicit liquor are so great that a fine and light punishment is no adequate punishment. Therefore be it

"RESOLVED: That the Pomona Grange of Clearfield County, go on record as favoring the imposition of sentences to the full limit of the law for all violations of the laws for the suppression of the liquor traffic."

"RESOLVED FURTHER: That we ask the Judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield County to see that these laws are strictly enforced.

"RESOLVED FURTHER: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Honorable A. R. Chase, by the proper officers of this organization?"

Resolution Two

It is almost universally accepted that the milk produced by cows infected with the germs of tuberculosis is dangerous and unfit for use by human beings, especially so for children.

Milk constitutes a major part of the diet of many children and every thing should be done for their protection.

"RESOLVED: That Pomona Grange of Clearfield County will urge all owners of milk cows to make the proper arrangements to secure the State's financial support to make a County test.

SOME ODDS AND ENDS AT GREAT PRICES

Irwin's Drug Store

Milk Is Cheaper Than Best Roundsteak

Roundsteak, as purchased at 25 cents a pound retail, represents 8.5 per cent waste (bone and sinew). The edible tissue contains 67.8 per cent water.

The consumer, therefore, pays for 16 ounces of edible roundsteak solids 84 cents, as against 50 cents for the same quantity of milk solids.

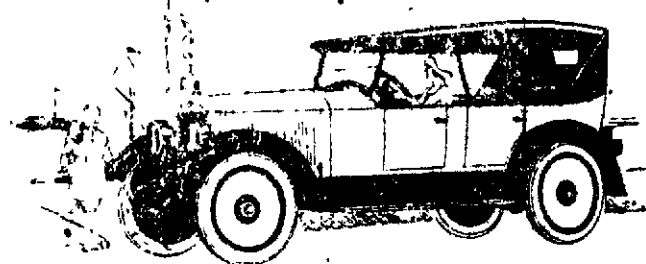

Roundsteak not only lacks the salts of lime, iron, and other indispensable mineral constituents of whole food, but it cannot be consumed by young infants at all.

Carnivorous animals find the missing elements of a meat diet in the blood and bones of their victims. In stripping the bone and draining the blood man loses these elements.

Hence, in contrasting a one-sided food at 84 cents a pound with a whole and complete food at 50 cents a pound, we are enabled to appreciate the true value of milk.

Rickenbacker

A CAR WORTHY OF ITS NAME

Remember— Rickenbacker Told You So!

Just so you will fix the fact in your own mind for future reference and guidance;

—so you will, in the future, value Rickenbacker's advice at its true worth, and heed our timely warnings;

—so you will, in short, come to realize that Rickenbacker engineering is as sound as it is progressive;

—and finally, so you will know that in selecting a Rickenbacker you are always getting a car that is at least a year in advance of the rank and file of cars in engineering improvements, in body styles, finish and appointments;

—to the end that your annual depreciation will be the minimum, and resale value of your car the maximum;

We are constrained to remind you that just six months ago, (July 1st, to be exact), Rickenbacker proclaimed to the world that, within a year, 4-Wheel Brakes would be universal.

Several makers openly took issue with us.

Not only was every effort made to discredit our assertion and discount the superiority of 4-Wheel Brakes, but to prove that Rickenbacker was wrong both in pioneering this great improvement, and in taking such a definite stand on the subject.

We were certain, however, that future events would prove the accuracy of our assertion.

We knew we were right—and feared not to go ahead.

Only six months later—January 5th to 12th—the New York Automobile Show was a sensational vindication of the Rickenbacker policy.

It is almost every exhibit in that great show was an endorsement of Rickenbacker judgment—frank recognition of Rickenbacker leadership.

The evidence was so conclusive as to leave no room for doubt—4-Wheel Brakes have conquered apathetic prejudice and active opposition.

Not only have they proven necessary, but actually indispensable for safe driving in present-day traffic conditions.

Informed buyers now insist—and will continue more than ever to insist—that all four wheels be equipped with first-class brakes.

Eventually this insistence will be for fully enclosed, internal expanding brakes, too.

33—over 50%—makers exhibited cars in which 4-Wheel Brakes were an outstanding feature.

This was in response to insistent demands of buyers as expressed through salesmen and dealers.

The buyer, having once experienced the greater safety and efficiency of this fundamental improvement, said "I want that!"

And when an American buyer demands, the maker has no option—he must comply.

Today, the buyer is repeating those words so often and so emphatically, every maker must accede—or pay the penalty.

"Has this car 4-Wheel Brakes?"

That was the first question you heard when you stopped at any exhibit in the Auto Show.

And the next question generally was, "Are they internal expanding brakes mechanically operated?"

But, several other innovations and improvements that were emphasized by several makers as new in this show—but which you saw in the first Rickenbacker Six—also indicated the impress of this product on the entire industry.

12 Cars now boast "vibrationless motors." And it is interesting to note the several expedients applied in efforts to emulate the results of Rickenbacker's "Tandem Fly Wheel."

9 Cars emphasized "deeper frames"—though none as yet, approaches the eight (8") inch dimensions of the Rickenbacker "Double Depth" frame.

6 Cars showed springs set nearer the ends of the rear axle—nearer the point of contact between tire and road. This is one of the features of Rickenbacker "Cradle" spring suspension.

There are several other points, however, that are still to be found only in this car.

6 Cars have "Air Cleaners" of one kind or another—in emulation of Rickenbacker's provision for "protecting the lungs of the motor."

Fully 75% of all makers now feature steel disc wheels—first announced as standard on the first Rickenbacker Six.

5 Cars feature ball bearings in steering spindles—all of these are much higher priced cars than Rickenbacker, by the way.

5 Cars show the commutator located above motor, away from dirt, water and oil. This also you first saw in the Rickenbacker Six.

And yet—while "imitation is the sincerest form of flattery," and we heartily acknowledge the implied compliment—

We cannot but derive still more satisfaction from the fact that, while each of several have emulated Rickenbacker in one or two features, none so far, has combined all those superiorities in one product as you find them in the Rickenbacker Six.

Of course, everyone looked to this exhibit to sound the keynote for the new year. Nor was any disappointed.

Rickenbacker ran true to form by setting a new standard of values with several refinements and the unprecedented equipment at the new price.

When you had visited this exhibit, the term "fully equipped" had acquired a new meaning.

For Rickenbacker showed, for the first time in the world's history, standard models at standard prices, and completely equipped as to leave the new owner "Nothing Else to Buy."

Rickenbacker models this year are equipped with all those safety devices and conveniences which the seasoned motorist considers essential, and for which, heretofore, you have paid extra.

Not only the customary speedometer, ammeter, voltmeter, pilot light, oil gauge and switch-lock on the instrument board;—

But also transmission lock, Folberth wind-shield cleaner, combination vanity and smoking case, motor meter, motor meter wings, motor meter lock, shock absorbers and bumpers, both front and rear.

The open models—Sport Phaeton and Sport Roadster—also have beveled plate-glass wind wings.

All models are equipped with drum tire-covers with lettered warning "4-Wheel Brakes," which is for the benefit of the man behind, and which never fails to give the Rickenbacker man right of way. This is Rickenbacker's interpretation of the term "fully equipped."

Here is established not only a new standard of values, but a new code of business ethics.

For the first time, you saw an automobile in which the customer's needs and desires were considered paramount.

This is another Rickenbacker departure from former rules that will revolutionize sales practice.

"Nothing Else to Buy" is today the exclusive slogan of the Rickenbacker salesman—even as "4-Wheel Brakes" was his clarion cry six months ago.

Buyers will no longer accept as "fully equipped" a car that lacks any essential for ideal driving under any conditions of weather or traffic congestion.

Having seen the new Rickenbacker models; having yourself experienced the wonderful performance of the 4-Wheel Brakes, the luxury of a vibrationless motor, and the thrill of handling this car;—

Having seen what constitutes "complete equipment" according to the new Rickenbacker standard;—

And when you consider that all this is included in the new "delivered" price, you will be at a loss to understand how it is possible to produce so much for so little money.

We hope you will see all the others before you see the Rickenbacker—for only by direct comparison can you appreciate the amazing difference in quality, performance and value.

Curwensville's Own Column

Friends and relatives were notified to the effect that Maud Thompson, formerly of this place, now of Buffalo, and the gentleman for whom she is keeping house, Thomas Samp, who has visited in Curwensville a number of times and is quite well and favorably known, met with an auto accident a few days ago which landed the gentleman in a Buffalo hospital. The lady escaped with some severe bruises. The young lady is a sister of Howard Thompson, this place, and she herself was born and reared in this town, being the only daughter of the late F. I. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman, who live on Bloomington avenue and are very aged, were reported yesterday as being confined to their bed by an illness which might prove fatal to both.

The week's meetings in the Presbyterian Church, which will probably come to a close with the Sunday services, have proved very successful, some thirty new members being added to the church roll. Rev. Mr. Pratt, of Philipsburg, assisted Pastor Conly with the meetings.

That new bank proposition for Curwensville is no myth as some of the town's citizens suppose. Several meetings have been held lately and an allotment of stock subscribed. The new institution contemplates opening its doors for business in the east room of the Arnold homestead building on Main street. A meeting will be called shortly for the election of proper officers and transaction of other necessary business prior to the opening date.

Miss Mary Hartshorn, who has been ill, is not recovering as rapidly as her friends wish.

John L. Craig is recovering nicely from a severe attack of measles.

Theodore Webb has gone to Pittsburgh for a visit with his father and other relatives.

Messrs. Harry Bilger and Charles Cole are both home from hospital confinement and are each getting along nicely.

Mrs. John Bowers, residing on South street, while walking down the road Thursday, slipped on the ice and fell, cutting a long and deep gash in her head, necessitating medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb, Gram-

Little Dorsey Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Martin, is convalescing after an attack of pneumonia.

O. S. Jones, one of the Progress friends and readers, would like to know how many people remember the winter of 1876. 57 years ago last Friday the funeral of Mrs. Cynthia Hartshorn was held on the 14th of January, and the procession in conveying the body to the Friends cemetery was compelled to drive through field, over drifts and fences in order to reach the burial ground.

The many friends of Mr. Francis Thompson of Clearfield may be interested in knowing that he expects to skate on the Strand Theatre, Curwensville, January 23d. Here is the chance for those who have never had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Thompson skate. He is in fine condition for skating this evening.

Mr. Thompson of the Strand Theatre will skate on the night of January 23. Also the picture "The Lone Road" will be shown. Benefit Pantomime. Admission 25c. 10:15

Miss Cathryn Pearce has been confined to her home all week with an attack of pleurisy and neuralgia.

Measles, chicken pox and whooping cough are prevalent among the children of the town at the present time.

Mrs. Sol. Knee, who lives about one mile south of town is very ill of pleural pneumonia.

A fine baby boy arrived last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stephens of Mineral Springs.

NURSE IS HELD ON MURDER CHARGE THREE YEARS OLD

Philadelphia, Jan. 17 (AP)—Still protesting innocence and declaring she is the victim of a "frame-up", Myrtle Atkinson, 31 years old, of Ironton, O., a nurse in a suburban home for convalescents here, was in the city hall jail today charged with being implicated in the murder of Thomas Gwynn, a Massillon, O. policeman, three years ago. Police here are awaiting word from Ohio authorities.

The nurse was arrested last yesterday at the bedside of a patient. "It's all a frame-up, a dirty frame-up," she cried hysterically after a detective had read the warrant.

"I wouldn't go back, so they trump up this charge to get me back and testify against my friends. I was a bad woman out there and got mixed up in this mess. Now they won't let me alone, even though I'm trying to live straight. I'll go back, but I'll never try to be good again."

The detectives quieted her and took her to City Hall where she told a story of illicit love with a former Akron policeman. This man, Claude Osterholt, is now awaiting trial for Gwynn's murder. She declared she is certain Osterholt did not commit the murder because at the time of the shooting he was in his apartment. Osterholt's arrest followed a deathbed confession of Alexander, Dallas, so called "King of the Underworld," that he had hired Osterholt to slay Gwynn.

The nurse is believed by police to be a drug addict. When searched by a matron before being locked up, a bottle of morphine was found tucked away in her stocking.

A hearing is scheduled for 10 o'clock this morning.

The employees of the Clearfield Laundry Co. gave a delightful party at Idora Park last evening. About twenty-five couples participated and a very enjoyable time was had by all. Budge, dancing and refreshment were indulged in during the evening.

Passenger Missing From Steamer When It Docked; Had Charge Of A Corpse

Norfolk, Jan. 19. (INS.)—When the old Dominion steamer Jefferson from New York docked here last night, H. P. Burnett, a passenger who gave his address as 140 East Thirty-third street, New York, was missing. A note to the Purser, two letters, a bunch of keys and a few coins were found in Burnett's disordered state.

Burnett was last seen by a negro porter at 7 o'clock this morning. Just before springing from New York last night, he was seen by the Purser and by a passenger named the Jefferson and by a passenger named the Jefferson and by a passenger named the Jefferson.

A note addressed to the Purser read:

"The undertaker will call for this corpse at Norfolk. I am instructed to give his baggage check to him but as I am unable to do this I will be obliged if you will.

(Signed) H. P. BURNETT.

Detective Nowiskey, assigned to the case, mailed the two letters found in Burnett's stateroom without opening them. One was addressed to Mrs. A. Burchell, 139 West 78th street and the other to Mrs. J. Boineade, 140 East 13 street, New York City.

Police believe it is a case of suicide although officials of the Old Dominion line said it would have been possible for Burnett to come ashore here unnoticed as he was not known to any on board.

Mrs. Dora Flegal and Mrs. Laura Stewart went to Bald Hill to spend the weekend at the home of Tyler Murray.

BEFORE BABIES WERE BORN

Mrs. Oswald Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Girardville, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my last two babies came. It keeps me in perfect health and I am on my feet getting meals and doing all my housework until an hour before the baby is born. A friend told me to take it and I have used ten bottles since I heard about it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound whenever I can. Just yesterday a friend was telling me how miserable she felt, and I said, 'If you start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's you will feel fine. Now she is taking it.'—Mrs. P. J. Oswald, Jr., 406 W. Ogden St., Girardville, Pa.
